Uniforms

People who are in the same group, team or occupation often wear the same clothes so that they can be easily identified. These types of special clothes are called uniforms. Many people are proud to wear their uniform as it shows they are part of a team.

Football players all wear shorts, tops, socks and football boots that are very much the same – however, the colours are different and each team has its own design and special logo. These are so popular that millions of children all around the world like to wear the same clothes as their favourite footballers.

Workers such as fire fighters and police officers need clothes that protect them, as their work can be dangerous. It is important to wear a helmet to protect the head from injury. Other occupations such as doctors and nurses wear uniforms so that people know who they are. Uniforms also protect their own clothes and are more hygienic.

Many schoolchildren all around the world also wear uniforms. Not all pupils like this – however, school uniforms do have a lot of advantages. They make children feel a part of their school and they make everyone look the same, with no difference between rich and poor.

Finally, if you have a uniform there is one big advantage. You don't need to spend hours every morning deciding what to wear!

ONETOWATCH!

Essay by Jessica Bourne, aged 14

I'm a big fan of films featuring the spy James Bond. I've got most of them on DVD. We've recently bought Quantum of Solace, in which Daniel Craig plays the part of Bond. I don't know why the film's got that name – but it's a great movie, anyway. All the actors who've played James Bond have been great, but Daniel Craig, who's made lots of other films, plays the part better than any of them. Even though he doesn't talk very much, I think he's the most perfect actor for the role. He even does a few of the more dangerous things in the film himself, instead of getting someone else to do them. I did wonder sometimes whether he'd be clever enough to defeat the bad people – but I'm not going to tell you the ending. The actress who stars with Craig gives a fantastic performance too – I loved all the glamorous clothes she wore!

The director probably had a hard job making this Bond film as full of action as earlier ones. But the excitement starts right at the beginning here, with a car chase along a mountain road, and plenty of other thrilling scenes, too – Bond leaping off tall buildings and so on. Unfortunately I found the story difficult to follow in places, and it also seemed to be over very quickly – it lasted under two hours. I also felt there weren't as many jokes as in the old Bond films. And where was all the ridiculous Bond equipment – the underwater car or exploding watch that everyone laughed at?

This is more serious, darker Bond film, but I still really enjoyed it.

6. What is Jessica trying to do in her essay?

- A explain what first attracted her to Bond films
- B tell readers about the Bond DVDs she owns
- ✓ C give a balanced view of a Bond film she has seen +
- D describe how Daniel Craig got the part of James Bond

7. What can a reader find out from Jessica's essay?

- A whether Quantum of Solace is her favourite Bond film
- B what other films Daniel Craig has made
- C which other actors have played James Bond
- ✓ D whether she thinks Daniel Craig is the best James Bond +

8. What does Jessica tell us about Craig in the new Bond film?

- ✓ A He performs some of the action scenes. +
- B He wears some stylish clothes.
- C He is given a lot of lines to say.
- D He looks strong and fit enough to fight the criminals.

9. What is one problem with the film, according to Jessica?

- A It seems a bit too long.
- ✓ B It's sometimes hard to understand what's happening. +
- C It has too much silly technology in it.
- D It has jokes that aren't very funny.

10. Which of these might appear in a magazine review of the new Bond film?

- A It's full of excitement, with Bond jumping across rooftops, so don't be disappointed by the slow start.

B The director wanted to move away from the last Bond film and include a bit less action.

✓ C I'm not sure the title tells you much ...but be prepared to watch a rather ~~+~~ different kind of Bond movie.

D Daniel Craig performed well as James Bond, but the main female star was disappointing.
